Every Child Matters Change For Children

'Children learn best through physical and mental challenges. Active learning involves other people, objects and events that engage and involve children for sustained periods'

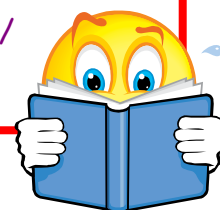

We have a wide range of board games and toys available to hire. Some of these are traditional games, such as Monopoly and Scrabble and others encourage counting and language development. Please ask for more details

Cost for hire:
50p for 4 weeks

Thursday 4 March 2010 is World Book Day.

For more information, support or advice about reading with your child please ask a member of staff.

To find out where your local library is, try looking on the website:

Let us know which toys you would recommend to others!

"She squeals in delight at the baby gym - the bright colours really catch her attention!"

"He loves the froggie bath toy and really takes note of it. He likes it so much we hired it again and at 25p for 4 weeks I can't complain at the price"
